I have the honour to invite your attention to G.O. Mis. No. 215, Finance, dated 28th March 1927

(copy enclosed) and to request that the annual establishment returns referred to in article 62 (1) of the Civil Account Code, Volume I, may be forwarded to this office not later than the 20th of April 1927 in the case of offices in the Presidency town and not later than the 1st of May 1927 in other cases.

2 Under paragraph 60, Madras Treasury Manual, Volume I, the forms (including the memorandum of instructions) required for the preparation of these returns both for your office and for the offices subordinate to you may be indented for from the Superintendent of Stationery, Madras, in sufficient time.

Enclosure.

G.O. Mis, No. 215, Finance, dated 26th March 1927.

Read—the following :—

From the Accountant-General, Madras, T.M. No. 34-5644, dated 9th March 1927.

Order—

The Government approve of the proposal of the Accountant-General in his letter read above that the Annual Establishment Returns referred to in article 62 (1) of the Civil Account Code, Volume I, should be forwarded to the Accountant-General's Office not later than the 20th April in the case of offices in the Presidency Town and not later than the 1st May in other cases.

Copy of letter from the Accountant-General, T.M. No. 34-5644, dated 9th March 1927.

I have the honour to state that the Annual Establishment returns under article 62 (1) of the Civil Account Code, Volume I, are due in this office early in April and in any case not later than the 15th May. As great delays were noticed in the receipt of these returns for 1925, I addressed the heads of departments in January 1926 regarding their more punctual submission (copy of my letter enclosed). Notwithstanding this special appeal, two fifths only of the returns had been received by the 16th May 1926, one half after that date but within a fortnight, while the remaining 10 per cent came even later.

2 The list of pay bills for April paid at treasuries from 1st to 10th May are due in this office on the 15th idem and it is inconvenient at the check of the Annual Returns and the Audit of these pay bills are not taken together. The names of subscriptive holders in the April bills and in the annual returns and their rates of increment can best be checked at this stage. Before this check, a preliminary verification with the previous return has to be completed. I therefore request that Government will be pleased to issue orders that the Annual Returns should be submitted to this office not later than the 20th April in the case of offices in the Presidency Town and not later than the 1st May in other cases so as to enable my office to carry out the preliminary verification in time.

3. I request early orders to enable me to alter the due date prescribed in my instructions, now under issue to heads of offices for preparing the 1927 returns.

Enclosure.

Circular letter No. T.M. No 34-5121, dated the 7th January 1926, from the Accountant-General, Madras, to all heads of departments.)

[Subject—Submission of the Annual Establishment Returns.]

I have the honour to state that the Annual Establishment Returns are due for submission to this office not later than the 15th May under article 62 (1) of the Civil Account Code, Volume I. In 1925 however the number of April Returns received before the end of May was less than one-fourth of the total number due. As these Annual Returns play a very important part in the audit of pay bills and the duplicate copies of the returns serve, after check, on the basis for conducting the audit of future payments relating to the year, I would request that necessary instructions may be issued to all subordinate officers under your control that the returns are favorably sent to this office not later than the 15th May fixed in the Civil Account Code.

2. As grades of pay have been abolished in almost all office establishments and as officiating promotions are now fewer, the preparation of the return is not so complex as in the past.

J. C. NIXON,
Accountant-General.

No. 26-Gl., dated 4th February 1921, of the office of the Inspector of Schools, Bellary and Kurnool, based on Proceedings R.O. No. 443, dated 17th January 1921 of the Director of Public Instruction.

4. The names of the selected candidates should appear in the list in the order in which the Deputy Inspectors wish that the candidates should be, i.e., with reference to their general educational attainments, their service as teachers, the need for training and the nature of their appointment, and the school areas which they apply for training. In the case of rejected candidates the reasons for rejection should be mentioned against the names.

The attention of the Deputy Inspectors is invited to rules 122 and 123 of the Madras Educational Rules. The applications of these candidates should be signed by the respective presidents of local boards.

10. As regards qualifications for admission, only those candidates who have passed the annual examination of the third form or eighth standard and have been found fit for promotion to the fourth form or have been awarded an elementary school leaving certificate of the eighth standard are eligible for admission into the Elementary Higher Class, and only those who have passed the late Primary Examination or a corresponding public or school examination or whose attainments in the opinion of the inspecting officers are not lower than those are eligible for admission into the lower class. The certificates of general education should be sent in original with the application. Separate conduct certificates need not be submitted by candidates whose applications are signed by an inspecting officer.

11. In cases in which the number of candidates applying for training is much in excess of the number for which there is provision, selection should be made as the result of an entrance examination conducted by the Deputy Inspector of Schools. TENDERS FOR THE MENTAL HOSPITAL SUPPLIES

Notice is hereby given that sealed tenders, in duplicate, will be received up to 8-30 a.m. on Saturday the 14th May 1927, by the Superintendent, Government Mental Hospital, Calicut, at his office, for the supply of articles of diet and other hospital necessaries required for the Mental Hospital from 1st June 1927 to 31st March 1928.

2. Tenders should be addressed to the Superintendent, Government Mental Hospital, Calicut, and should be superscribed "Tenders for the Mental Hospital Supplies". Each tender must contain not only the rates which should be expressed in words as well but also the total value of each item of supply entered in a separate column, and the items so totalled up should show the aggregate cost of the entire tender.

3. The articles required are detailed in the classified schedules annexed and information as to samples, etc., may be had on personal application at the Mental Hospital.

4. A separate tender should be sent in for each group—

(1) Articles of diet.

(2) Other hospital necessaries

5 Each tender must be accompanied by an earnest deposit of the amount noted against each article in the schedule and, in default of such deposit, the tender will be rejected, nor will any tender be received after the time fixed.

6. No person making the tender will be allowed to withdraw his tender and, in the event of his so doing, his deposit shall be forfeited to the Government

7. The successful tenderers will be required to enter into stamped agreements within seven days from the date of intimation to them that their rates have been accepted In addition, they should, before signing such agreements, deposit a security of 10 per cent of the total value of the supplies undertaken. Failing compliance within the time specified, their earnest money will be confiscated, and they will be liable to pay any differences between the prices accepted and those ultimately obtained by the hospital. The earnest money of the successful tenderers will be taken towards their security deposits and those from others returned on receipt of final orders of the Surgeon General with the Government of Madras.

8. The contract must not be sublet.

9 No advance of cash will be made to the contractor Payments for articles delivered at the hospital on order will be made after they have been inspected and passed.

10. Each tenderer should attach a certificate to the tender to the following effect :—

"I, the tenderer, agree to have the earnest money confiscated to Government in case of my failure to undertake the contract."

11. The contractor's security will be returned to him after the completion of the contract.

12. In addition to any difference in prices that may be recoverable from the contractors on account of purchase rendered necessary elsewhere by failure, neglect or refusal on their part to supply the articles according to the terms of their agreement a fine not exceeding 10 per cent of the deposit money may be levied at the discretion of the Superintendent for each and every case of such default. For repeated infringement of the stipulations of the contract or for other justifiable reasons the contract will be annulled, recovering all losses sustainable by the hospital in consequence of the annulment from the security deposited by the contractors or other monies due to them, and, in the event of any residue, by legal measures.

13. The Superintendent reserves to himself the right to reject or accept any tender or reject or accept any article or articles in the group tendered for by the successful tenderer, without assigning any reason for so doing.

14. The successful tenderers will be required to pay the value of the stamp duties on their contracts.

15. Fractions of a rupee in the totals of contractors' bills will be rounded off to the nearest rupee (i.e., fractions of less than half are disregarded and half a rupee and over are taken as a rupee) in the case of bills amounting to Rs. 25 and upwards. Total of bills for less than Rs. 25 will be rounded off to the nearest anna (i.e., amounts below six pies are disregarded and six pies and above are taken as one anna)

16 Every correction in the tender must invariably be initialled by the tenderer, failing which the tender will be rejected.

17. The number or quantity entered in the schedule of tender is the probable minimum number or quantity to be supplied, but the contractor will be under an obligation to supply as much as the Superintendent may require him to supply The Superintendent does not bind himself to receive the full number or quantity noted in the tender schedules

18. All supplies must be up to the samples approved by the Superintendent.

19. No article is to be supplied to the hospital except on a requisition signed by the Superintendent or some responsible person authorized by him in writing to do so

20. All articles should be delivered at the Mental Hospital free of freight and other incidental charges.

21. The Government reserve the power of interference, and the acceptance of any tender is provisional and subject to cancellation by the Government at any time within three months of the acceptance.

22 Further information on any point concerning this notification can be had from the Mental Hospital office.

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill further to amend the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923, was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 26th March 1927 :—

We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill further to amend the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923, was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted below and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto :—

1. Letter from the Secretary to the Chamber of Commerce, Bombay, No. 3254-298, dated the 29th November 1926.

2. Letter, from the Secretary to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, Calcutta, No. 12—1927, dated the 3rd-5th January 1927.

3. Letter from the Secretary to the Government of Bombay, General Department, No. 5918-13 C., dated the 6th January 1927.

4. Letter from the Deputy Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Political Department, No. 702-P., dated the 14th January 1927.

We have made several drafting alterations in the Bill to which it is unnecessary to refer in detail, and we now proceed to deal with other alterations which we have made, or the desirability of which we have discussed.

We considered very carefully the advisability of providing that the price of tickets should in no case be reduced below the price communicated to the Pilgrim Officer under sub-section (l) of the proposed new section 209B, which under sub-section (3) of the same section as originally framed must be reproduced in the advertisement. We have eventually decided that it would be not only unfair to the ship-owner to restrict in this manner his right of bargaining but would also be detrimental to the interests of pilgrims, many of whom may in the case of a half-filled ship be able to secure accommodation at reduced rates. We think that the only objection advanced to the practice of reducing fares, namely, that pilgrims may keep back in the hope of a reduction, is met by the provision which the Bill makes for ensuring that the ship shall start on a fixed date. We have accordingly inserted in sub-section (f) of the proposed new section 209 B the word 'maximum' before the word 'price' and have provided that the advertised price shall not be in excess of the price notified to the Pilgrim Officer. At the same time the Bill as originally drafted provides no penalty for the sale of tickets at a reduced price, and sub-section (h) of the proposed new section therefore requires no alteration other than an amendment consequential upon that made in sub-section (f)

We have rejected a proposal that the period which should elapse between the advertised date of sailing and the departure of a ship should be incorporated in the Act itself as we consider that this must be left to rules, as already provided in the Bill; and we have rejected a suggestion that power should be given to shipping companies to advertise a general programme some time before the opening of the pilgrim season as we think that such advertisements might bring pilgrims to the ports an unnecessarily long time before the dates eventually fixed for departure of those ships or in numbers for which accommodation might not be immediately available.

Under sub-section (l) of the proposed new section 209 C a ship which, having been delayed for several days in its departure from the port from which it commences its voyage, is delayed in its departure from its next port of call by a proportionate period would be liable to pay compensation twice over to pilgrims who were embarked at the port of departure, for what is really only a single period of delay. This is clearly unreasonable and we have added a proviso to the sub-section to meet this particular case.

We consider it inequitable to require, under sub-section (j) of the proposed new section 209 C, the master, owner or agent of the pilgrim ship to bear the costs of a reference if he is unsuccessful and at the same time not to give him any right to recover costs if he succeeds. We have accordingly deleted from this sub-section all reference to costs.

We agree with a representation made to us that, in the event of inability to despatch a ship on the advertised date of sailing, the owner or agent should be entitled, with the permission of the Pilgrim Officer, to substitute another similar ship of not less carrying capacity than the ship advertised. A provision of this kind will not only be beneficial to the ship owner, but will obviously tend to further the purpose of the Bill by obviating inconvenience to pilgrims. The new section 209 D which we propose is designed to permit of such substitution.

Finally, we are of opinion that it is not possible to exempt the port of Calcutta from the provisions of the Bill. We realize the risk that the opening of Calcutta as a pilgrim port may become inoperative owing to the unwillingness of ship-owners to provide steamers under the conditions imposed by the Bill, but we prefer that risk to the certainty that pilgrims will otherwise be delayed for long periods whilst bookings are being filled.

2. The Bill was published in the Gazette of India, dated the 6th November 1926.

3. We think that the Bill has not been so altered as to require republication, and we recommend that it be passed as now amended.

(1) If the pilgrim ship fails to proceed from any port or place on the date advertised under sub-section (g) of section 209 B as the date of sailing therefrom, the master, owner or agent shall become liable to pay as compensation to each pilgrim who has paid his passage money on or before such date the sum of one rupee for each completed day during which the sailing of the ship is delayed after that date:

Provided that such compensation shall not be payable in respect of any period during which the departure of the ship is impossible owing to any cause not arising from the act or default of the master, owner or agent, and the burden of proving such cause shall lie on such master, owner or agent:

Provided, further, that, where compensation has been paid or has become payable to any pilgrim in respect of delay in the sailing of the ship from any port or place and the sailing of the ship from any other port or place is thereafter delayed beyond the date advertised in that behalf, the pilgrim shall be entitled to compensation only in respect of any period by which the duration of such further delay exceeds the duration of the delay in respect of which he has already received or become entitled to compensation.

(6) In the event of such failure, the master, owner or agent shall be bound forthwith to inform the Pilgrim Officer at the port or place at which the delay occurs of the number of passage tickets of such class which have been issued for the voyage on or before the advertised date of sailing.

(7) Any sum payable as compensation under sub section (1) shall be paid on behalf of the pilgrims entitled thereto to the Pilgrim Officer at the port or place at which the delay occurs on receipt by the master, owner or agent of a notice from that officer specifying the sum payable, and that officer shall, in such manner as may be prescribed, pay to each such pilgrim the compensation paid in respect of his detention :

Provided that, if an objection is made by the master, owner or agent that the sum specified in any such notice or any part of such sum is not payable by him, the sum paid or, as the case may be, the balance thereof remaining after payment to the pilgrims entitled thereto of compensation the right to which is not in dispute, shall be held in deposit until the objection has been decided :

Provided, further, that, if for any reason the compensation due to any pilgrim cannot be paid to him at the time of embarkation or at or before the time of his disembarkation at the port of his destination, the sum so remaining unpaid shall be made over to such authority administering any fund maintained for the assistance of pilgrims as the Local Government may, by general or special order, designate in this behalf.

(8) If the master, owner or agent objects that the sum specified in the notice issued under sub section (5) or any part thereof is not payable by him, he may, at the time of payment of such sum, give to the Pilgrim Officer notice of his objection, together with a statement of the grounds thereof, and the Pilgrim Officer shall thereupon either cancel or modify the aforesaid notice in accordance with the objection and refund the sum held in deposit under sub-section (5), or refer the objection for decision to a Presidency Magistrate or a Magistrate of the first class exercising jurisdiction in the port or place at which the ship is delayed ; the decision of the Magistrate on such reference shall be final, and there shall be refunded to the master, owner or agent any amount allowed to him by such decision.

(9) On the failure of any pilgrim ship to proceed from any port or place on the date advertised under sub-section (3) of section 209 B as the date of sailing therefrom, the Pilgrim Officer at that port or place shall forthwith give notice of such failure to the officer authorised to grant port-clearance to ships thereat, and such officer shall refuse port-clearance to the pilgrim ship until the master, owner or agent produces to him a certificate of the Pilgrim Officer that all sums payable by way of compensation under this section up to the day on which the ship is to proceed have been paid.

3. In sub-section (1) of section 213 of the said Act, after clause (gg) the following clause shall be inserted, namely :— Amendment of section 213, Act XXI of 1923.

"(ggg) the manner in which the proposed date of sailing shall be advertised under section 209-B; the appointment of Pilgrim Officers for the purposes of that section and sections 209-C and 209-D; the manner in which payment shall be made under section 209-C to pilgrims and to the Pilgrim Officer; and the procedure to be followed by masters, owners or agents and by Pilgrim Officers and Magistrates in proceedings under that section;"

Rem. Act II of 1887; Ben. Act I of 1898. 4. Sections 11, 12, 12-A and 12-B of the Protection of Pilgrims Act, 1887, and sections 11 and 12 of the Protection of Muhammadan Pilgrims Act, 1898, are hereby repealed. Repeals

(b) after sub-section (3) the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely :—

"(3A) No rule shall be made unless the draft thereof has been referred to every Mining Board constituted in the province for which it is proposed to make the rule, and unless each such Board has had a reasonable opportunity of reporting as to the expediency of making the same and as to the suitability of its provisions."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The weekly hours of work for persons employed in mines are limited to 60 in the case of persons working above ground and to 54 in the case of persons working below ground. But there is no statutory limit on the daily hours of work, so that, for example, there is nothing to prevent a miner from being employed for 17 or 18 hours to one day. During the debates in the Legislative Assembly on the Mines Bill (which afterwards passed into law as the Mines Act, 1923) a proposal was made to place a direct limitation on the daily hours of work. The proposal was rejected, but the Hon'ble Sir Charles Innes on behalf of Government promised to examine, in consultation with Local Governments, the question of introducing a compulsory system of shifts in mines. The main part of the present Bill is the outcome of this examination.

2. While the primary object of the Bill is the imposition of a limitation on the daily hours of work, it must not be supposed that hours of work in mines are generally excessive. It is probably the case that in few mines do the miners maintain a standard of more than eight hours' work daily on the average; and it is not anticipated that the Bill, if passed, will have any appreciable effect in reducing hours of work. The main advantages which the Bill is designed to secure are of a different character. The present system (or lack of system) in many mines encourages miners to spend long hours underground and makes satisfactory supervision difficult. It tends to increase the number of accidents in several ways, and it diminishes the potential efficiency of the Indian miner. The shift system has been introduced with success in a number of mines, and it would probably be introduced more generally without compulsion were it not for the danger that labour may gravitate to those mines where restrictions are absent. That danger will disappear when regularity in working hours is made the general rule, and it is believed that the system now proposed will be to the general advantage both of the mineowner and the miner.

3. There is no suggestion from any quarter that a limitation should be imposed on the hours within which work may be carried on in a mine, and it is intended that mineowners should be at liberty to carry on work for the whole 24 hours. If the mineowner is willing to restrict the total hours of work to the limit that may be prescribed for the individual worker, the declaration beforehand of the hours within which the mine is to be worked is sufficient to enable control to be exercised over working hours. But when a mineowner desires that the mine should be worked for a longer period than the daily limit prescribed for the individual worker, the enforcement of a system of shifts is essential if control has to be maintained. Further, the Government of India are satisfied that, if effective control is to be exercised, it is necessary that the shifts should be so arranged that they do not overlap. In other words, if the workmen of any particular class, e.g., coal cutters, are to be divided into a number of shifts, not more than one such shift should be employed in the mine at the same time.

4. If this is accepted, it means that there are only two-shift systems which can reasonably be considered. These are the two-shift system, in which the limit of each shift is 12 hours and the three-shift system in which the limit is 8 hours. The three-shift system is already in force in a few mines in India; but the Government of India consider that it is, at present at any rate, out of the question to enforce an 8 hours' day in Indian mines. They have therefore reached the conclusion that it is impracticable at present to attempt to fix a lower limit for the daily hours of work than twelve. Under the Bill, if passed, mineowners will have the option of (1) limiting the hours of working over the mine as a whole to 12 daily, and (2) introducing a system of shifts, not exceeding 12 hours each, so arranged that the hours under two shifts of the some type of worker do not overlap. The detailed provisions by which this end is to be secured are explained in the Notes on Clauses, where an explanation is also given of clause 7 which is unconnected with the main part of the Bill.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 1.—It is considered desirable that, even after the Bill is passed, mineowners should have a period of grace in which to make the adjustment that will be necessary in many mines. It is therefore proposed that the Bill should not be brought into operation until 1st April, 1930.

Clause 2.—The amendment proposed makes it unlawful to employ any person for more than 12 hours in any consecutive 24 hours.

Clause 3.—The new section 23A enforces the introduction of shifts in all mines working for more than 12 hours out of the 24. Section 23B is designed to allow for a periodical change of shifts, necessary wherever the workers are not to be compelled to work within the same hours (e.g., night hours) for indefinite periods. Section 23C provides for the notices necessary to enable the inspecting staff to enforce the Act.

Clause 4.—Section 24 of the main Act exempts the supervising staff from the provisions limiting hours of works and section 25 enables the manager to employ labour in contravention of these provisions in the case of an emergency on work necessary to protect the safety of the mine or the workers in it. This clause is rendered necessary by the introduction of the new section 23A

Clause 5.—This provision is required to prevent the evasion of the limitations on hours of work which would be possible if double employment were permitted.

Clause 6.—Section 28 of the main Act provides for the maintenance of a register of workers and their hours of work. The first amendment to it is consequential on the introduction of the shift system, the second is necessary for the enforcement of the restriction on daily hours; and, coupled with the new section 23C, gives the inspecting staff what is required to enable them to ascertain whether the law is being observed or not.

Clause 7.—Under the existing law, all regulations and rules have to be referred to Mining Boards before they are published for criticism. It has been brought to the notice of Government that in the case of rules, which are made by Local Governments, this provision leads in some cases to unnecessary delay, and that Mining Boards may, on occasion, more suitably be consulted after criticisms have been received from the general public. The proposed amendment will give Local Governments the power to consult Mining Boards at the stage which appears best to them. No change is proposed in the law relating to regulations, which are framed by the Government of India.

The 5th March, 1927. B. N. MITRA.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 25th March 1927 :—

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY BILL No. 28 OF 1927.

A Bill to amend section 96 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for a certain purpose.

V of 1908. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend section 96 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; it is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Code of Civil Procedure (Amendment) Act, 192 .

V of 1908. 2. To section 96 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, the following sub-section shall be added, namely :— Amendment of section 96, Act V of 1908

"(4) No appeal shall lie from the decision of any Court the pecuniary limits of whose jurisdiction exceed two thousand rupees, or of any other Court specially designated in this behalf by the Local Government, determining under section 47 an objection by a judgment-debtor to the execution of a decree for money on the ground that the decretal amount has been paid or adjusted in whole or in part, if the amount claimed to have been paid or adjusted does not exceed, in the case of such first-mentioned Court, five hundred rupees, or, in the case of such other Court, two hundred rupees."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In paragraph 2 of Chapter 30 of their Report the Civil Justice Committee recommend inter alia that in cases where orders in execution of money decrees are passed under section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, on pleas by the judgment-debtor that payment or part payment had been made, there should be no appeal from such orders when passed by specially empowered Munsifs or corresponding officers up to a limit of Rs. 200, and by Subordinate Judges or corresponding officers up to a limit of Rs. 500. The Bill seeks to give effect to this recommendation by an amendment of section 96 of the Code. As the Code, however, does not provide for the classification of Subordinate Courts, a limit of Rs. 2,000 has been adopted to indicate the difference between the two classes of Courts with final jurisdiction

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY BILL No. 29 OF 1927.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Divorce Act for a certain purpose.

IV of 1869. WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Divorce Act for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Indian Divorce (Amendment) Act, 1927.

Insertion of new section 17-A in Act IV of 1869.

2. After section 17 of the Indian Divorce Act the following IV of 1869 section shall be inserted, namely :—

Appointment of officer to exercise duties of King's Proctor.

"17-A. The Governor General in Council may appoint for each High Court of Judicature established by Letters Patent an officer who shall, within the jurisdiction of the High Court for which he is appointed, have the like right of shewing cause why a decree for the dissolution of marriage should not be made absolute or should not be confirmed, as the case may be, as is exercisable in England by the King's Proctor, and the Governor General in Council may make rules regulating the manner in which the right shall be exercised and all matters incidental to, or consequential on, such exercise."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under sub-section (4) of section 1 of the Indian and Colonial Divorce Jurisdiction Act, 1926 (16 & 17 Geo. 5, Ch. 40), proceedings before a High Court in India, in exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by that Act, are to be conducted in accordance with rules made by the Secretary of State in Council of India with the concurrence of the Lord Chancellor. These rules are required to provide inter alia for conferring on such officials as may be appointed for the purpose within the jurisdiction of such High Court the like right of shewing cause why a decree nisi should not be made absolute as is exercisable in England by the King's Proctor under sections 181 and 182 of the Supreme Court of Judicature (Consolidation) Act, 1925 (15 & 16 Geo. 5, Ch. 49). These provisions apply in cases where the parties concerned are British subjects domiciled in England or in Scotland. The Bill proposes to make provision in the Indian Divorce Act for the appointment of an official to perform similar functions in respect of persons domiciled in India.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 28th March 1927 :—

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY BILL NO 20 OF 1927.

A Bill to amend the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926, for certain purposes

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Indian Bar Councils Act, XXXVIII 1926, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted 1926. as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Bar Councils (Amendment) Act, 1927.

Amendment of section 8, Act XXXVIII of 1926.

2. In section 8 of the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926 (hereinafter XXXVIII referred to as the said Act), sub-sections (3), (4) and (5) shall be 1926. renumbered as sub-sections (5), (6) and (7), respectively, and after sub-section (2) the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely :—

"(3) Entries in the roll shall be made in the order of seniority, and such seniority shall be determined as follows, namely :—

(a) all such persons as are referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (2) shall be entered first in the order in which they were respectively entitled to seniority inter se immediately before the date on which this section comes into force in respect of the High Court; and

(b) the seniority of any other person admitted to be an advocate of the High Court under this Act after that date shall be determined by the date of his admission or, if he is a barrister, by the date of his admission or the date on which he was called to the Bar, whichever date is earlier:

Provided that, for the purposes of clause (b), the seniority of a person who before his admission to be an advocate was entitled as of right to practise in another High Court shall be determined by the date on which he became so entitled.

(4) The respective rights of pre-audience of advocates of the High Court shall be determined by seniority:

Provided that the Advocate General shall have pre-audience over all other advocates, and King's Counsel shall have pre-audience over all advocates except the Advocate General."

Amendment of section 9, Act XXXVIII of 1926.

3. In sub-section (4) of section 9 of the said Act, after the words "any such application" the words "or to prescribe the conditions under which such persons shall be entitled to practise or plead" shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Select Committee on the Indian Bar Councils Bill (which was passed as Act XXXVIII of 1926) inserted as clause 8 of that Bill the following provisions to regulate seniority and pre-audience among advocates:—

(1) Entries in the roll shall be made in the order of seniority and the seniority of each advocate shall be determined by the date of his admission to be an advocate or, in the case of a person referred to in clause (a) of sub section (3), by the date on which he was admitted to be an advocate, vakil or pleader, as the case may be, of the High Court.

(2) Subject to any special orders which the High Court may think fit to make in individual cases, the respective rights of pre-audience of advocates of the High Court shall be determined by seniority:

Provided that the Advocate General shall have pre-audience over all other advocates, and King's Counsel shall have pre-audience over all advocates except the Advocate General.

These provisions were omitted from the Bill as finally enacted on the understanding that they would be circulated for opinion. This has now been done. The opinions received disclose a lack of unanimity. On the whole, however, the majority of the High Courts prefer that, subject to the preservation of rights existing at the time that the Bar Councils Act comes into force, seniority and pre-audience should be regulated in accordance with the recommendations in paragraphs 18 and 21 of the Indian Bar Committee's report which may be summarised as follows:—

"Both on the appellate and original sides, advocates who are barristers should take precedence inter se according to the dates of call to the Bar, advocates who are not barristers according to the dates on which they became entitled to practise in a High Court, and a member of the former class should take precedence over another advocate only if he was called to the Bar before the other became entitled to practise in a High Court. An advocate of one High Court enrolling in another should take precedence from the date he was first entitled to practise in a High Court, and a barrister who was only called to the Bar after admission to practise in a High Court should take precedence from the date of admission to practise in a High Court."

The Bill gives effect to these recommendations. The opportunity has been taken to make a small amendment to sub-section (5) of section 9 of the Act of 1926, in consequence of criticisms during the debate in the Legislature Assembly on the 2nd September 1926.

A. P. MUDDIMAN.

NEW DELHI:
The 23rd March 1927.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 28th March 1927 :—

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 31 OF 1927.

A Bill to make provision to enable volunteer police forces to be constituted temporarily and employed locally for the purpose of preserving the public peace and protecting persons and property, and to define the powers and duties of such police.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision to enable volunteer police forces to be constituted temporarily and employed locally for the purpose of preserving the public peace and protecting persons and property, and to define the powers and duties of such police; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Volunteer Police Act, 192 .

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, including British Baluchistan and the Southal Parganas.

(3) The Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, direct that this Act shall come into force in the province, or any part thereof specified in the notification, on such date as may be so specified.

Interpretation.

2 (1) In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "district" means any area which is a district for the V of 1898. purposes of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898;

(b) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act; and

(c) "Superintendent of Police" means the chief officer of police in a district other than a Presidency-town or the Rangoon Town District.

(2) In the Presidency-towns and the Rangoon Town District, the powers and duties under this Act of the District Magistrate and of the Superintendent of Police shall be exercised by the Commissioner of Police and references to those officers shall be construed as references to the Commissioner of Police.

Constitution of district volunteer police force.

3. (1) The District Magistrate of any district may, for the better preservation of the public peace and protection of the inhabitants of and property in, the district, direct the constitution, for such period, as he may fix, of a volunteer police force for the district or any part thereof and call for volunteers therefor in such manner as he thinks fit.

(2) The District Magistrate or, in any district other than a Presidency-town or the Rangoon Town District, a Magistrate authorized by him in this behalf, may appoint to the volunteer police force any person fit and willing to be appointed thereto and assign to him any rank in the volunteer police force not superior to that of an inspector:

Provided that, in a district other than a Presidency town or the Rangoon Town District, no person shall be appointed to the volunteer police force or have any rank assigned to him therein save on the recommendation of, or with the concurrence of, the Superintendent of Police.

(3) Every police officer duly appointed to the volunteer police force shall receive on his appointment a certificate in the prescribed form signed by the District Magistrate, which shall entitle him to exercise all the powers and functions and have all the privileges of a volunteer police officer under this Act.

(4) The District Magistrate may, from time to time, extend the period fixed under sub-section (1) and, notwithstanding that the period so fixed or any period by which it has been extended has not expired, may at any time order that the volunteer police force be disbanded.

Duties of volunteer police

4. A member of the volunteer police force shall not be employed otherwise than in the district in which he has been appointed and for the purpose of preserving the public peace and protecting the inhabitants of, and property in, that district or, where the force has been constituted for a part only of the district, that part, and no volunteer police officer shall be required to take any part in the investigation of any offence or the prosecution of any person for an offence or to perform any duty other than such as the Local Government may by rules made under this Act prescribe as a duty ancillary to the purposes aforesaid or to any of them.

Powers of volunteer police

5. Every volunteer police officer shall, for the purposes of the execution of his duties as such police officer, have all the powers, privileges and protection of a regular police officer appointed under the Police Act, 1861, or any other law for the time being in force in the district regulating the powers of the regular police forces employed therein:

of 1861

Provided that no volunteer police officer not expressly empowered in this behalf by the Superintendent of Police shall exercise control over, or be entitled to issue orders to, any regular police officer or have any of the powers of an officer in charge of a police station.

Control

6. Every volunteer police officer shall, in the execution of his duty, act under the direction and control of the Superintendent of Police of the district in which he is appointed, and shall be bound to carry out all lawful orders of any volunteer police officer superior to him in rank, and of any regular police officer to whom he is, under the orders of the Superintendent of Police, subordinate:

Provided that no volunteer police officer shall be subordinate to, or in any way subjected to the control of, any regular police officer inferior in rank to a sub-inspector, unless such regular police officer is in charge of a police-station.

and order. It has been represented to them that not enough has been done to enable citizens of this country to assist the cause of the public peace, to which, it is suggested, they are less indifferent than is commonly considered the case. Accordingly, with a view to encouraging the growth of a civic sense, Government have in the Bill devised means of enabling the public to co operate if they so desire with the regular police force.

2. Occasions have arisen in the past when the police force in districts has been subjected to almost intolerable strain or even reduced to a state of exhaustion. The possibility of the recurrence of such occasions in the future cannot be disregarded, and Government, therefore, while attaching importance to the educational value of co-operation by private citizens in assisting in the maintenance of law and order, desire also to provide for a material accession of strength as occasion may require and the good will of citizens may facilitate.

3 The Bill, therefore, empowers District Magistrates in those provinces in which the Local Government may have brought it into force, and under the general and special control of that Government, to constitute temporary volunteer police forces for use within the district. It also enables similar action to be taken in Presidency-towns. It is necessary to proceed by way of legislation in order to invest volunteer police officers with statutory powers, duties and privileges.

4. The volunteer character of the force is secured by provisions for appointment of only such persons as are fit and willing to be appointed, and it will be maintained by the provision for voluntary resignation, subject to due notice. In order to throw the force open to all classes in the community, middle-aged and young, educated and uneducated, the Bill provides for the entertainment of police officers of various ranks and not merely constables. All appointments will be honorary, but provision is made for allowances for out-of-pocket expenses and for compensation for illness or injury.

5. The purposes for which the force will be entertained are the preservation of the public peace, the protection of the inhabitants and the security of property in the part of the country where it is appointed. The duties of volunteer police officers will be only those which are strictly ancillary to these purposes, and will not include investigation or prosecution. In the discharge of these duties the volunteer police will have the powers, privileges and protection of a regular police officer appointed under the Police Act, 1861.

6. The scheme to which the Bill gives shape contemplates that the volunteer force should not only include rank and file, but should also find its own officers. It is nevertheless of the essence of the scheme in its educational aspect, and of prime importance for administrative purposes that the force should be closely co-ordinated with the regular police and should be controlled by professional officers. It is proposed to effect these objects by placing the force under the direction and control of the Superintendent of Police and by subjecting every volunteer police officer to the lawful orders of any volunteer police officer superior to him in rank and of any regular police officer to whom he is, under the orders of the Superintendent of Police, subordinate. But the members of the force will not be subject to the control of any subordinate officer of the regular police lower in rank than an officer in charge of a police station.

Provisions regarding discipline are as simple as possible. Departmental punishments will be limited to reduction in rank, discharge or dismissal. Otherwise discipline will be maintained by the imposition of a fine on conviction at a judicial trial.

ALEXANDER MUDDIMAN.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In the last Assembly I had given notice of my intention to introduce a Bill designed to protect married and unmarried girls below the age of 15. Subsequently, the Government introduced a similar Bill affording protection to girls below the ages of 13 and 14 within and outside marital relations. During the course of the discussion on the Bill the Hon'ble the Home Member gave an undertaking in the Assembly to circulate those clauses of my Bill which were not covered by the Government Bill. These clauses provided for a new offence of unlawful intercourse.

I have in this Bill sought to protect married girls between 13 and 14 and unmarried girls below 16, prescribing a smaller penalty in the former case. My object in protecting married girls up to 14 is this—

(a) It is a fact now sufficiently established that a majority of girls do not attain puberty in this country before that age; and the mere appearance of puberty is not the same thing as the attainment of sufficient physical development to enable them to endure the travails of maternity;

(b) Premature cohabitation is responsible for the appallingly high death rate in the case of infants before they are even twelve months old; which in several provinces averages 33 per cent;

(c) It weakens the offspring that survive, weakens the mother and is responsible for the high death rate and low vitality of the people addicted to this evil;

(d) Early cohabitation is equally detrimental to the married couple; the husband suffers in his education, and so does the wife; while the family has to mourn frequent bereavement and suffers from the illness of its members.

In the case of unmarried girls the last Assembly had no objection to extending the protection to all minors even up to the attainment of 18 in a majority.

It is hoped that public opinion is now sufficiently aroused to the evils of early cohabitation and my Bill, if passed, will, I hope, act as a salutary deterrent upon persons who still remain addicted to a practice highly detrimental to the growth of a healthy and vigorous nation.
